ORDER

UPON reading the motions for leave to intervene brought by the Samuelson-Glushko Canadian Internet Policy and Public Interest Clinic (“CIPPIC”) and the Women’s Legal Education and Action Fund Inc. (“LEAF”) both brought pursuant to Rule 369 on September 17, 2025;

AND CONSIDERING that the Applicant does not oppose the motions;

AND CONSIDERING that the Respondent does not oppose the motions on the basis that CIPPIC and LEAF have agreed to limit their intervention in the following manner:

1. LEAF and CIPPIC will not duplicate the Privacy Commissioner of Canada's submissions on the facts or the law;
2. LEAF and CIPPIC will be limited to filing a combined 20 pages of written submissions; and,
3. LEAF and CIPPIC will be limited to making oral submissions for a combined 30 minutes.

AND CONSIDERING the affidavits of David Fewer and Kat Owens;

AND CONSIDERING that the Court is satisfied that the test for intervention under Rule 109 has been met; and, more specifically, that the proposed interventions will be useful, the proposed intervenors have a genuine interest in the proceeding and that it is in the interests of justice that the intervention be permitted: Le-Vel Brands, LLC v Canada (Attorney General), 2023 FCA 66;

THIS COURT ORDERS that:

1. CIPPIC and LEAF will be added to the style of cause as interveners;
2. CIPPIC and LEAF will be served with electronic versions of all materials filed and to be filed by other parties and interveners;
3. LEAF and CIPPIC will not duplicate the Privacy Commissioner of Canada's submissions on the facts or the law;
4. LEAF and CIPPIC will be limited to filing a combined 20 pages of written submissions;

5. The Applicant and Respondents shall each be permitted to file a responding Memorandum of Fact and Law of no more than 5 pages within 10 days of the filing of CIPPIC and LEAF's written submissions; and,
6. Subject to any direction of the judge hearing the application, LEAF and CIPPIC will be limited to making oral submissions for a combined 30 minutes.
7. CIPPIC and LEAF shall not seek any order for costs.
